

Tessa Lang Property Privacy Policy

This privacy notice sets out how we will process personal data we collect from or about you or which you provide to us. Please read this notice carefully to understand why data is being collected and what we do with that data.

Our website and services may contain links to independent websites which are not provided by us. Such independent sites are not under our control, and we are not responsible for and have not checked and approved their content or their privacy policies.

We may change the privacy notice from time to time by amending this page.

For the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998 and General Data Protection Regulation EU2016/679, the data controller is:

Tessa Lang Property Limited, a company registered in England under company number 6712920, whose registered address is: Finance House, 2A Maygrove Road, London NW6 2EB.

What type of information will we collect from you?

The personal information we collect from you will typically include the following:

1. Full name and contact details (including your contact number, email and postal address);
2. Information relating to your identity where we are required by law to collect this to comply with the Money Laundering Regulations 2017 and the Immigration Act;
3. Information on your close connections where we are required to identify conflicts of interests under regulatory obligations;

4. Your banking details where required such as where you are letting a property or where renting, to set up an approved tenancy deposit account for you and arrange for rental payments;
5. Information on any access requirements you have necessary to enable us to find suitable properties for you, which may consist of special category personal data including but not limited to details of any disability or other health information about you;
6. Details about your areas of interest where we wish to send you marketing information about similar products and services;
7. Usage information about your visits to our website (which enable our website to remember information about you and your preferences) and use of our site; currently 'cookies' are not installed, and this provision will be amended accordingly as well as a 'cookie policy' should this function be added to the website.
8. Your communications with us, including a record of the email or telephone correspondence created when you contact us as part of a product or service query.

Where we need to collect personal data by law (for example to meet our obligations to prevent fraud and money laundering) or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you (for example, to provide you with our services). In this case, we may have to cancel a product or service you have with us, but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

On what basis can we process your information?

The legal grounds under data protection legislation for processing your personal data are:

1. It is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party, or to take steps prior to entering into a contract with you, for us to provide you with our products and services;
2. You have given us explicit consent to the processing of your personal data for one or more specific purposes, namely
 - 1) where you have given us consent to receive electronic marketing by us and/or
 - 2) to process your Special Category Personal Data described above.
3. You do not need to provide us with marketing consent to receive our services;
4. It is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests, except where our interests are overridden by the interests, rights or freedoms of affected individuals. To determine this, we shall consider several factors, such as what you were told at the time you provided your data, what your expectations are about the processing of the data, the nature of the data, and the impact of the processing on you. Our legitimate interests include processing data necessary to improve and to promote our services and product; to better understand our customers' interests and requirements; to gather and update knowledge of the property market; to administer the technical aspects of our service and products.
5. Where we need to comply with a legal obligation;
6. Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests); and/or where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes.

What are we going to do with your information?

We will hold and use personal information about you in the following ways:

1. To fulfil our obligations to you when providing you with our property services;

2. To share your information with others where necessary to fulfil our property services for you or where acting as agent for a third party on your behalf;
3. To comply with our statutory and regulatory obligations, including verifying your identity, prevention of fraud and money laundering and to assess your credit worthiness;
4. Communicate with you during the course of providing our services, for example with your enquiries and requests;
5. Statistical purposes so we can analyse figures to help us manage our business and plan strategically for the future;
6. To provide you, or to enable third parties to provide you, with information about goods or services we feel may interest you, where you have provided permission for us to do so;
7. If you are an existing customer or have been our customer, to contact you by electronic means (including e-mail or SMS) with information about our own goods and services similar to those which you have already obtained from us or negotiated to obtain from us; you may unsubscribe at any time from such marketing messages;
8. To notify you about changes to our service;
9. To ensure that content from our site is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer.

How long we keep your data?

We will retain your personal data for different periods depending on the service you have chosen to use us for, which may be a longer period than that for which we need to hold your data to provide those services, i.e. where we are under regulatory or statutory duties to hold your data for a longer period or need to retain it in the event of a legal claim or complaint.

With whom will we share your data?

We will pass your details to the following organisations (our “data processors”) who carry out certain activities on our behalf as part of us providing our services:

- 1) Where we are managing property on your behalf (as landlord or as tenant) we may need to pass your personal information from time to time on to third party contractors whom we have engaged to carry out maintenance on your properties;
- 2) Where necessary to your property solicitors and those of the other party to your transaction.
- 3) We will also disclose your personal information to third parties:
 - a) In the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we will disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets.
 - b) If our company or substantially all of our assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by us about our customers will be one of the transferred assets.
 - c) If we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal or regulatory obligation, or protect the rights, property, or safety of our company, our customers, our clients, our suppliers or others. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction and property administration.

We will not share your information with third parties for marketing purposes without first obtaining your prior consent.

How is your data held?

Your data will be held on secure servers within the European Economic Area ("EEA") with all reasonable technological and operation measures put in place to safeguard it from un-authorized access. Where possible any identifiable information will be encrypted or minimised.

If we have given you a username and password which enables you to access certain parts of your data on our systems, you are responsible for keeping it confidential. Please do not share it with anyone.

How can you access and update your data?

You have a right to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you, known as a data subject access request. You also have the right to request that information we hold about you which may be incorrect, or which has been changed since you first told us, is updated or removed. These requests are free of charge and can be sent to:

Tessa Lang,
Data Protection Officer,
Tessa Lang Property,
33 Belsize Lane at XUL Architecture,
London
NW3 5AS.

How can you request erasure of your data?

You can ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing:

Where you have withdrawn consent for us to process it, should we have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. . . .

Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

How can you withdraw your consent?

You have the right at any time to withdraw any consent you have given us to process your personal data. Please note if you withdraw your consent it will not affect the lawfulness of any processing of your personal data we have carried out before you withdrew your consent. Should you wish to do so you can change your consent preferences at any time by contacting us at:

33 Belsize Lane at XUL Architecture.
London,
NW3 5AS.

How can you restrict or object to us using your data?

You can ask us to suspend the way in which we are using your information in certain circumstances, or object to our processing of your data.

- 1) Where we are relying on a legitimate interest ground (or those of a third party) and you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms;
- 2) Where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

In some cases where you object, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms. Please note that if you want us to restrict or stop processing your data this may impact on our ability to provide our services. Depending on the extent of your request we may be unable to continue providing you with our services. Any queries or concerns about the way in which your data is being used can be sent to:

Tessa Lang,
Data Protection Officer,
33 Belsize Lane at XUL Architecture,
London,
NW3 5AS

Can I move my data to another organisation?

In the event that we process your data by automated means where you have either provided us with consent for us to use your information or where we used the information to perform a contract with you, you have the right to request that we send to you or to another organisation, a copy of the personal data we hold about you, for example, when you are dealing with a different service provider.

If you would like us to move, copy, or transfer your information, please let us know at tessa@tessalangproperty.co.uk.

We will respond to you within one month after assessing whether this is possible, taking into account the technical compatibility with the other organisation in question.

How do I make a complaint?

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact us to have the matter investigated by writing to:

Tessa Lang,
33 Belsize Lane at XUL Architecture,
London,
NW3 5AS
